eCOA Consortium and PRO Consortium Announce Publication of Open Access Article

C-Path's eCOA Consortium and PRO Consortium are pleased to announce that "Recommendations for the Electronic Migration and Implementation of Clinician-Reported Outcome Assessments in Clinical Trials" was published online by Value in Health on April 2, 2022. The article presents a framework for planning the migration and implementation of electronic ClinRO assessments, as well as best practice recommendations drawn from applicable practices from PRO measure migration, electronic clinical outcome assement expertise of the panel, industry standards, and relevant literature.

Access here: https://doi.org/10.1016/j.jval.2022.02.012